

University of California
Agriculture and Natural Resources
Making a Difference for California

Foothill Grape Day 2017

Improving Your Vineyard "Culture"

Thursday, May 18, 7:30 a.m. - Noon (Lunch to follow.)

Amador County Fairgrounds, Spur Emporium Building, 18621 Sherwood Street in Plymouth

Approved by DPR for 2 "other" hours of continuing education. Use Code M-0712-17.

7:30 Registration and Coffee

8:15-8:50 Welcome. Foothill research update.

Lynn Wunderlich, UCCE Central Sierra Farm Advisor

8:50-9:20 Keys to successful vineyard plantings.

Larry Bettiga, UCCE Monterey County Viticulture Farm Advisor

9:20-9:50 Studies of the three-cornered alfalfa treehopper: vector of grapevine red blotch virus.

Cindy Preto, UC Davis Entomology Dept. PhD candidate

9:50-10:20 BREAK

10:20-10:40 Spore trapping: a new tool for powdery mildew detection.

Bryan Rahn, President, Coastal Viticultural Consultants, Inc.

10:40-11:00 Area-wide IPM program for Virginia Creeper Leafhopper.

Houston Wilson, UC Berkeley Entomology Post-doctoral student

11:00-11:30 Effect of high temperatures on fruit composition.

Kaan Kurtural, UCCE Viticulture Specialist

11:30-Noon Tannin development in the vineyard.

James Campbell, UC Davis Viticulture and Enology PhD candidate

Noon Lunch and wine tasting.

Thank you for supporting UCCE Foothill Grape Day.

Should you need assistance or require special accommodations for any of our educational programs, please contact us at 530-621-5502.

The University of California working in cooperation with County Government and the United States Department of Agriculture.