UCCE Master Food Preserver Training Orientation Meeting: Amador/Calaveras Counties

Friday, April 10

10-11: Jackson

2-3: San Andreas

Do you enjoy preserving food? Do you enjoy teaching? Do you want to meet new people who share your food passion? Become a volunteer for the UCCE Master Food Preservers! Attend either orientation meeting to learn about our program, community involvement, training and participation requirements. First priority to Amador and Calaveras county residents. RSVP to Robin at 530-621-5528.

Campers' Delight: Dried Foods

Saturday, April 11, 10-Noon, Free

If you're not a hiker or camper, you'll want to be after this class! Hit the trail with your own homemade energy bars, trail mix, and jerky. This quintessential hikers' food, lightweight and packed with nutrients, is not only perfect for the hiker, but makes excellent snacks for all ages. Get the most from your dehydrator and learn to safely dry fruits, vegetables, nuts, and (yes) meat. Create your own favorite to-go food or try one of our tasty recipes.

Location: Calaveras County Senior Center, 956 Mountain Ranch Road, San Andreas

Sacramento County

Preserving Ethnic Specialties

Wednesday, March 18, 6:30-8:30 pm, $5

The UCCE Master Food Preservers of Sacramento County are getting a little exotic--with their preserving that is! Learn how to preserve Curry Apple Chutney, the Russian version of Dill Sauerkraut and the Latin version of Sauerkraut with cumin. We will even get a little spicy with some lemon cumin spice rub and an Island Jerk rub.

Location: 4145 Branch Center Road, Sacramento
